

Study Guide

Capítulo 3A

Vocabulario y Gramática

- 1-Can you write sentences describing what foods are more typical for breakfast or lunch?
- 2- Can you write sentences describing what food you like/don't like and what foods you love/don't love? (Remember: The ending of these verbs change when you are talking about plural nouns.)
- 3-Can you write sentences using the verbs comer and beber correctly? This means that the endings will change depending on who or what the verb is talking about. (Subject pronouns).
- 4- How are nouns and adjectives placed within a sentence?
- 5- How are nouns used to modify other nouns?
- 6- Do you know the entire vocab on page 144 and can you use it correctly?

Escuchar

Can you listen to students describe what they usually eat and drink for breakfast and lunch and check it off as you hear it being said in Spanish?

Leer

If given a list of what students eat and drink for breakfast and lunch, could you answer questions about their preferences?

Escribir

Can you write a short paragraph describing a least three breakfast foods or beverages you like and three you dislike and do the same for your favorite and least favorite lunch food choices? You need to write in complete sentences not in list form.

You will be graded on:

- The number of complete statements you can make about what you like and don't like to eat and drink.
- How easily your writing is understood and organized.
- Accurate use of newly learned vocabulary and grammar.